

On Saturday, March 6th at BookPeople

The Austin Society of Book Writers and Illustrators Presents

Putting the Power in PowerPoint

Don't think you're savvy enough? Scared of animation? Sick of using the same old standard templates? Afraid of boring kids and adults alike? Then don't miss out on this presentation by author P. J. Hoover. PJ (Tricia) will dispel the burdening and fearful thoughts PowerPoint may conjure. She'll explain how to build a fantastic PowerPoint presentation from the ground up, and how, once that first presentation is done, it can be modified and reused for others in the future. PJ will go over the basics of creating your own custom template to personalize your presentation, and how to use animation and images to bring your presentation to life. Materials: bring an open mind and a bundle of energy. We'll see you there.

PJ Hoover

P. J. Hoover grew up visiting museums and dreaming of finding Atlantis. She eventually married and had two children, shifted her dreams to reality, and began a writing career. Her middle grade fantasy novels, The Emerald Tablet and The Navel of the World, chronicle the adventures of a boy who discovers he's part of two feuding worlds hidden beneath the sea. Prior to writing full time, PJ worked as an electrical engineer designing chips in Austin, Texas.